

Devon History Society AGM and Conference 2019

The Maritime History of Devon
Saturday 12 Oct 2019. Rougemont Room, Exeter Central Library,
Castle Road, Exeter, EX4 3PQ..

- 09.30-11.00 Registration
- 10.00-11.00 AGM including Reports by Officers, Election of Officers and Presentation of the Devon History Society Book of the Year Awards and Dissertation Prize
- 10.50-11.15 Refreshments

CONFERENCE

- 11.15-11.20 Welcome by Andrew Jones, Chair Devon History Society,
- 11.20-12.15 James Davey (University of Exeter) - Devon, the Royal Navy, and the French Revolutionary Wars, 1793-1801
- 12.15-13.00 Helen Doe (University of Exeter) - 19th century Devon women in shipping
- 13.00-13.30 Reception to celebrate Fifty Years of the Devon History Society
- 13.30-14.15 Lunch break (Bring your own food to eat in the foyer area or on the terrace – or use local cafes and restaurants – no food allowed in the Rougemont Room)
- 14.15-14.35 Gail Ham – Title to be confirmed
- 14.35-14.55 Mike Teare – Marine Heritage on the Torridge Estuary
- 14.55-15.10 Jenny Moon – A Devon Village Life
- 15.10-15.25 Comfort Break
- 15.25-16.00 Roger Barrett (Salcombe Museum) – Schooner Port: Salcombe and the Fruit Trade 1820-80
- 16.00 Conference ends

Parking in the centre of Exeter is expensive. However, there are Park and Ride facilities at Honiton Road, Sowton and Matford, and the High Street bus-stop is very near the Library. The National Bus Pass is valid for the park and ride facilities all day Saturday.