

DIGITISING YOUR ARCHIVES

A Seminar and Workshop for Local History Societies

Monday November 4th, 2019

Devon Heritage Centre, Bittern Rd., Sowton, Exeter, EX2 7NL

PROGRAMME

10.00-10.30 Registration and Coffee/Tea

10.30-11.15 Colyton Local History Society – The History of Colyton Project

11.15-12.00 Gary Stringer – Creating Sustainable Digital Archives (will discuss recent projects at the Digital Humanities hub of the University of Exeter including digitising the archives of Powderham Castle and the Northcott Theatre)

12.00-12.45 Dr. Will Barrett and Professor Gabriella Giannachi – The Exeter City Football Club Museum: Celebrating our Heritage

12.45-14.00 Lunch (Bring your own food to eat in Outreach Room, or use the DHC Café or Fresha Café in Bittern Road) and demonstration of accessible and affordable technology by Gary Stringer of the Digital Humanities Centre, University of Exeter.

14.00-14.45 South West Heritage Trust – Developments in the Preservation of Digital Records

14.55-15.30 Dr. Julia Neville – Devon Women Suffrage Activists and Digital Mapping: a Devon History Society Project

15.30 Conference Closes.